SECTION 3 COURSE INFORMATION

Accredited Training Programs

Accredited programs are competency based which means that training and assessment focus on the development and recognition of a person's ability to apply relevant knowledge and skills to perform workplace tasks to a specified standard.

The specific skills and knowledge required for a particular workplace activities are set out in Units of Competency which can be grouped together to formulate the completion of a nationally recognised qualification. Nationally recognised qualifications are outlined in Training Packages. These can be viewed at www.training.gov.au.

Each qualification has a list of employability skills which describe the non-technical skills and competencies that are important for effective and successful participation in the workforce. For each qualification, there are specific employability skills listed under the following headings:

- Communication
- Teamwork
- Problem solving
- Initiative and enterprise
- Planning and organizing
- Self-management
- Learning
- Technology.

These employability skills will be part of the assessment requirements of a nationally accredited course.

Competency

It is important to note that the rules and requirements of a Unit of Competency and a qualification are applied to all clients..

Each Unit of Competency is made up of the following:

- Elements;
- Performance criteria;
- Required knowledge and skills;
- A range of variables;
- Critical aspects of evidence;

To be deemed Competent in any Unit of Competency you must be able to provide evidence of the required skills and knowledge to complete work tasks to the standard that is required in the workplace. Skills need to be demonstrated in a range of situations and environments (which could include simulated applications in a learning environment) over a period of time.

Evidence

Evidence is the material proof that you have performed the specified competency or task to the required standard. Your evidence requirements will be determined by the Unit of Competency, employability skill requirements, industry expectations, Government regulations, and your qualifications and current experience. Evidence can take many forms and you will be required to present more than just one piece of evidence.

Assessment tools that we will provide to you set out the exact requirements for evidence for each unit/module.

Examples of evidence could include one or more of the following:

- Specific assessments tasks set by your Assessor
- Observation reports
- Certificates and awards
- Examples of work completed or special projects
- Current licenses
- Position descriptions and performance reviews
- Question responses
- Tests

Your evidence must also demonstrate the following:

- That you can do the job or task to the required standard
- Understand why the job should be done in a particular way
- Handle unexpected issues or problems
- Work with others 'in a team'
- Do more than one thing at a time, i.e. multi task, e.g. perform the task and be aware of the occupational health and safety requirements
- Know the workplace rules and procedures

Assessment

Assessment is an integral part of your learning if you wish to complete successfully and gain certification.

The assessment process will be explained at orientation and throughout your program. Assessors will also be available to you if you have any questions.

Assessment is the process of collecting evidence and making judgement on whether competency has been achieved to confirm that an individual can perform to the standards expected in the workplace and as expressed in relevant competency standards.

Throughout the training program you will be assessed to see if you have gained the necessary skills and knowledge to achieve the qualification. Your trainer/assessor is required to ensure that the assessment tasks you undertake meet the national principles of assessment and rules of evidence (see below for more information).

Various assessments tasks /activities may be involved including, but not limited to:

- Observation of performance;
- Assignments;
- Written activities;
- written / oral questioning;
- oral presentations;

Reliable	Evidence presented for assessment is consistently interpreted and assessment results are comparable irrespective of the assessor conducting the assessment.
Flexible	Assessment is flexible to the individual learner by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflecting the learner's needs; • Assessing competencies held by the Learner no matter how or where they have been acquired; and • Drawing from a range of assessment methods and using those that are appropriate to the context, the unit of competency and associated assessment requirements, and the individual.
Fair	The individual learner's needs are considered in the assessment process. Where appropriate reasonable adjustments are applied by the RTO to take into account the individual learner's needs. The RTO informs the learner about the assessment process, and provides the learner with the opportunity to challenge the result of the assessment and be reassessed if necessary

Rules of Evidence and Assessment

Academic Institute of Melbourne Pty Ltd is required to ensure that all evidence provided by clients, as proof of their competency, meets the following "rules of evidence".

Valid	The assessor is assured that the learner has the skills, knowledge and attributes as described in the module or unit of competency and associated assessment requirements.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy

Our Training Package sets a minimum requirement in language, literacy and numeracy skills of participants, with which the Academic Institute of Melbourne Pty Ltd must abide. The minimum requirement is to sit for an LLN assessment test as part of the application process.

Academic Institute of Melbourne Pty Ltd makes appropriate concessions for language, literacy and numeracy issues of clients where these concessions do not compromise the requirements of the relevant Training Package and the integrity, equity and fairness of assessment.

Where there are entry requirements for the course e.g. literacy in English and numeracy, these are clearly stated in pre-enrolment and enrolment information.

Advice is given to all clients on appropriate actions if there is a need to update literacy and numeracy skills.

The LLN questionnaire/assessment test is to be completed by the applicant on their own and is part of the eligibility criteria and it will also help identify the applicants level of skill and knowledge. The student/client will only be required to bring a form of identification which has a photo showing as part of the verification process. The LLN questionnaire/assessment test will be in a hardcopy format and written in pen and supervised by a staff member. The LLN questionnaire/assessment test has a fee of AU$60 which is non-refundable and covers the cost of the assessment. This fee must be paid prior to the assessment in the form cash, credit card, cheque or bank transfer (Contact Academic Institute of Melbourne via phone (03) 9317 7858 or email at academicinstituteofmelbourne@gmail.com for the details).

If the results from the assessment are not satisfactory to gain entry to the course, then an Academic Institute of Melbourne representative will indicate what gaps you will need to bridge to undertake the course.

The LLN questionnaire/assessment test will take place in Suite 112/44 Hampstead Road, Maidstone, Victoria, 3012 and will take approximately 2 hours. The student/client will be notified of the outcome of the questionnaire/assessment test within 2 working days via phone or email.

Recognition and RPL

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is an assessment process that assesses an individual's non-formal and informal learning to determine the extent to which they have achieved the required competency outcomes. It involves collecting evidence and making judgements on whether competence has been achieved. RPL is available to all student's/client's. The RPL Application form is available from Academic Institute of Melbourne Administration as well as the Information for RPL document (Refer to Fees below for RPL Fee for assessment). Recognition of Prior Learning will comply with the assessment requirements of the BSB07 Business Services Training Package and will be conducted in accordance with the Principles of Assessment and the Rules of Evidence.

Recognition is the collective term and includes:

- Recognition of prior learning (RPL);
- Recognition of current competency (RCC);
- Credit transfer (CT); and
- Mutual Recognition (MR).

All clients have the opportunity to apply for recognition. This means that you can submit evidence for a Unit(s) of Competency and have it assessed by a qualified Assessor without completing the training.

Academic Institute of Melbourne Pty Ltd believes that no learner should be required to undertake a unit of competency for which they are already able to demonstrate satisfactory achievement of the performance outcomes, as stated in the endorsed training package or nationally recognised course.

Academic Institute of Melbourne Pty Ltd aims to maximise the recognition of a learner's prior skills and knowledge whilst at all times maintaining the integrity and standards of the defined learning outcomes of the specific qualification or course of study. Clients who consider they already possess the competencies identified in all or part of the course/qualification offered by Academic Institute of Melbourne Pty Ltd may seek recognition.

If you think you have the necessary knowledge and skills to match a Unit(s) of Competency or a qualification at the required standard you need to contact our Administration on (03) 9317 7858 who will provide the information you need to complete an application.

Recognition Process

Recognition is a method of assessing if you have evidence of competency for a particular unit of competency that you are enrolled in. It is important to remember that Recognition is an assessment process not an assumption of competence.

Recognition is the determination, on an individual basis, of the competencies obtained by a client through:

- previous formal training
- work experience, and/or
- life experience.

Recognition therefore determines the subsequent advanced standing to which the client is entitled in relation to a course/qualification. The main focus of Recognition is what has been learned rather than how, where or when it was learned. Recognition focuses on both the demonstration of competence and the currency of that competence to industry standards.

It is important to note; the onus is on the client to document and present evidence to justify a claim for recognition and present their case to the satisfaction of the Assessor.

Any documents that you provide to support your claim of competency must be the originals rather than copies. Your original documents will be photocopied and handed back to you. It is also expected that any evidence submitted is your own and if any part of the work is the work of others, that this is formally acknowledged and advised.

Recognition Decision

Regardless of the type of evidence that you submit, Assessors must be confident that the evidence meets the following criteria:

- Full requirements of the Unit of Competency(s);
- Any Regulatory requirements;
- Authenticity - That it is your own evidence and can be authenticated;
- That you can perform the competency consistently and reliably;
- Is at the standard expected in industry and set out in the Australian Qualification Framework (AQF);
- Sufficiency - There is sufficient evidence to make a judgment.

Academic Institute of Melbourne Pty Ltd is committed to ensuring that all judgments made by Assessors against the same competency standards are consistent. Your Assessor will examine the evidence that you present and then make a judgment on that evidence which will be either:

- Competent (C) - you have been deemed competent against all the requirements of the Unit/s of Competency
- Not Yet Competent (NYC) - you have not yet demonstrated competency to all requirements.

Your assessor will advise you what you can do if you receive a NYC for your assessment task. If you are deemed NYC in your initial assessment, you are allowed a second attempt. However, if you are deemed NYC in the second attempt, you will be required to re-enrol. Please talk to your assessor if you have any concerns.

For further information on Recognition, please see Academic Institute of Melbourne Pty Ltd Recognition policy.

Mutual Recognition

Academic Institute of Melbourne Pty Ltd recognises the AQF qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations (RTOs). This is commonly referred to as Mutual Recognition or Credit Transfer. Mutual recognition is applicable when a Statement of Attainment or qualification provided by a client has the same national competency codes as those that form part of the training and assessment program within which the client is enrolled or is intending to enrol. Clients are required to formally apply for Mutual Recognition. With Mutual Recognition clients are not required to undertake learning in the unit/s again, the client is exempt.

Special Needs

Clients intending to enrol for training with the Academic Institute of Melbourne Pty Ltd are requested to advise us if they have any physical or other impairment (e.g. English language, literacy or numeracy difficulties, dyslexia, etc.) which may adversely affect their ability to successfully undertake training and assessment, prior to enrolment.

Clients with disabilities or impairments are encouraged to discuss with the Trainer/Assessor any 'special needs' and/or 'reasonable adjustments' to the study environment which they consider are necessary or would assist them in the performance of their studies.

The Trainer/Assessor, in collaboration with the client, will assess the potential for the client to successfully complete the training.

Trainer and Assessors

Our Trainer(s) and Assessor(s) are qualified in training and assessment and the vocational area which they are delivering. They have practical experience and maintain their currency in industry.
